Governmental Immunity: The Customer does not waive its governmental immunity by entering into this Agreement, and fully retains all immunities and defenses available under W.S. § 1-39-104(a) and all other immunities provided by law with respect to any action based on or occurring as a result of this Agreement.

Confidentiality: All documents, data compilations, reports, computer programs, photographs, and any other work provided to or produced by Contractor in the performance of this Agreement shall be kept confidential by Contractor unless written permission is granted by Customer for its release or unless disclosure is otherwise required by law. Contractor shall have similar agreements with any subcontractor to maintain the confidentiality of information specifically designated as confidential by Customer.

Liens and lien Notice: Wyoming law requires the following notice to Customer regard liens on the property by Contractor, subcontractors, and any suppliers. Customer agrees that they have received, read, and understand this notice:

Notice to Owner: The undersigned party is providing work or material to the property described below. Failure of payment due and owing to a contractor, subcontractor or material for work performed or materials provide to the project located on the property can result in the filing of a lien against the property. To avoid this result, when paying for labor and material you may ask the contractor, subcontractor or materialman for “lien waivers” from all persons supplying material or service. Failure to secure lien waivers may result in your paying for labor and materials twice. A form of lien waiver is available in Wyoming Statute 29-10-101(b), which is incorporated here by reference. The property description listed above is the location where the work is being performed and the materials are being provided. That description is incorporated here by reference.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR CLAIMS: Contractor shall not be responsible for claims arising out of damages to persons or property occasioned by Contractor or his or her agents, third parties, acts of God, or other causes beyond contractor's control. Customer shall hold contractor completely harmless hereon, and shall indemnify contractor for, all costs, damages, losses, and expenses, including judgments and attorneys' fees, resulting from claims arising from causes enumerated in this section. RESPONSIBILITIES OF OWNER: Customer shall not order any materials or services from any supplier or subcontractor for the work without permission from the contractor.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF CONTRACTOR: Contractor's duties and rights in connection with the above-described project are as follows: A) Contractor shall be solely responsible for all construction under this contract, including the techniques, sequences, procedures, and means, and for coordination of all work. Contractor shall supervise and direct the work to the best of his or her ability, and give it all attention necessary for such proper supervision and direction. B) Contractor shall pay all taxes required by law in connection with work on the project in accordance with this agreement including sales, use, and similar taxes, and shall secure all licenses and permits necessary for proper completion of the work, initially paying the fees for such licenses and permits. For reimbursement by Customer. C) Contractor assumes full responsibility for acts, negligence or omissions of all his employees on the project. D) Warranty of Fitness of Equipment and Materials. Contractor represents and warrants to Customer that all equipment and materials used in the work, and made a part of the structures on such work, or placed permanently in connection with such work, will be new unless otherwise specified in the contract documents, of good quality, free of defects, and in conformity with the applicable codes. E) Clean-up. Contractor agrees to keep the work premises and adjoining ways free of waste material and rubbish caused by his or her work or that of his or her subcontractors. Contractor further agrees to remove all such waste material and rubbish on termination of the project, together with all his or her tools, equipment, machinery, and surplus materials. Contractor agrees, on terminating his or her work at the site, to conduct general clean-up operations related to his work on site.

CHANGE ORDERS: All changes will be authorized by a written change order signed by Customer and contractor. Each change order will include conforming changes in the agreement contract and completion time. Work shall be changed, and the contract price and completion time shall be modified only as set out in the written change order. Any adjustment in the contract price resulting in a credit or a charge to Customer shall be determined by mutual agreement of the parties, before starting the work involved in the change. Customer shall be responsible for all cost increases, time delays and other consequences of any change orders. Customer understands that a change order to one category of work may result in increased expenses and delays in another category of work.

TIME OF ESSENCE; EXTENSION OF TIME: It is specifically declared and agreed that time is of the essence of this agreement. All times stated in this agreement or in the contract documents are of the essence. Each time stated in this agreement or in the contract documents may be extended such reasonable time as the parties may determine when contractor is delayed in work progress by changes ordered, labor disputes, fire, prolonged transportation delays, injuries, or other causes beyond contractor's control or which justify the delay. Customer shall not unreasonably interfere with construction progress by appearing on the jobsite during work hours. Nor shall Customer perform any work on the project, or attempt to control or supervise contractor, subcontractor, or employee.

GOVERNING LAW: This agreement shall be governed by, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws of Wyoming.
NOWAIVER: The failure of either party to this agreement to insist upon the performance of any of the terms and conditions of this agreement, or the waiver of any breach of any of the terms and conditions of this agreement, shall not be construed as waiving any such terms and conditions, but these shall continue and remain in full force and effect as if no such forbearance or waiver had occurred.

SECTION HEADINGS: The titles to the sections of this agreement are solely for the convenience of the parties and shall not be used to explain, modify, simplify, or aid in the interpretation of the provisions of this agreement.

ATTORNEYS' FEES: If any action is filed in relation to this agreement, the unsuccessful party in the action shall pay to the successful party, in addition to all the sums that either party may be called on to pay, a reasonable sum for the successful party's attorneys' fees and costs and any charges incurred by contractor for the services of any collection agency.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This agreement shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and any prior understanding or representation of any kind preceding the date of this agreement shall not be binding upon either party except to the extent incorporated in this agreement.

MODIFICATION OF AGREEMENT: Any modification of this agreement or additional obligation assumed by either party in connection with this agreement shall be binding only if evidenced in writing signed by each party or an authorized representative of each party.

ASSIGNMENT OF RIGHTS: The rights of each party under this agreement are personal to that party and may not be assigned or transferred to any other person, firm, corporation, or other entity without the prior, express, and written consent of the other party.

Public Hearing

Notice is hereby given that on or before the 15th day of January, 2022, the following applicants filed applications for liquor license renewals, in the office of County Clerk of the County of Natrona for the following business at said locations.
